It is said that the beauty of a woman does not lie in the dress she wears , it does not lie in the figure she carries and it does not even lie n the hair she combs, instead the beauty of a woman lies only and only in her eyes. And, so was the day when Vidyabharti Trust celebrated the beauty of womanhood on 8th March 2021, giving each woman wings of its Institution to fly.

The privilege to have ‘Ms. Trushna Yagnik’ as a Chief Guest among us who is a Project manager at i– Hub, Education department, Government of Gujarat. She was a research faculty at Indian Institute of Ahmedabad –IIMA during 2015-2019. She worked as a core committee member, vancthe Gujarat campaign by gujarat government in 2016. She was training and development director, Gujarat region, Zee learns Ltd (zee entertainment group) during 2013-2016.

The Principal, Dr. Atul Shah then addressed the vivacious women and greeted them great strength on the occasion. It was then followed by a vibrant speech by Ms. Trushna Yagnik, where she emphasized the need to pause for a moment to reflect on ourselves, to appreciate how much has been done and what more needs to be done in the field of student startup, innovation policy, women indolence and women empowerment.

She was then presented a token of love to spare her valuable time and share here presence. The stage was then overtaken by Prof. Shraddha Vani who anchored the program and added great pomp with her poetry and humor.

The performances delivered by students were the highlights of the event, where girls from different colleges of the Institution either tapped their feet to peppy songs or presented a mono-acting show or narrated poetry leaving everybody nostalgic. The great fest was then put to an end with scrumptious snacks leaving all in an awe of cherishable moments.
